Armen-Levon Manaseryan is an Armenian concert pianist, recording artist, and President of the Armenian Pianists Association. His musical journey spans studies in Armenia, Belgium, and Germany, reflecting a rich blend of Russian, French, and German piano traditions. Notably, he was awarded the Order of Preservation of the Armenian Nation in 2021 in recognition of his significant cultural contributions.

Internationally acclaimed, Armen-Levon has garnered numerous awards and participated in renowned festivals and competitions across the globe, including in Armenia, Belgium, Germany, France, Austria, Spain, Romania, Bulgaria, Greece, Italy, Poland, Malta, Portugal, Kazakhstan, the Russian Federation, and many other countries. Beyond his performances, he is the founder of the VITRAGE Festival, the Art Next To Kids charity project, and the Armenian Pianists Association NGO, a networking platform for all Armenian pianists.

As a recording artist with the KNS Classical label and Navona Records (parent label: PARMA Recordings), Armen-Levon is recognized for his innovative approach to music visualization. His projects, such as Color Of Sound and Visible Music, showcase his unique ability to combine his own illustrations with world-renowned programmatic piano music, providing audiences with an immersive experience.

His commitment to the music community extends to serving as a jury member for prestigious competitions, reflecting his dedication to nurturing young talent. An ardent educator, Armen-Levon conducts masterclasses and imparts his knowledge through teaching in Cologne and Bonn (Germany), as well as in Yerevan (Armenia).
